

Multigenerational Households Bring Texas Families Together

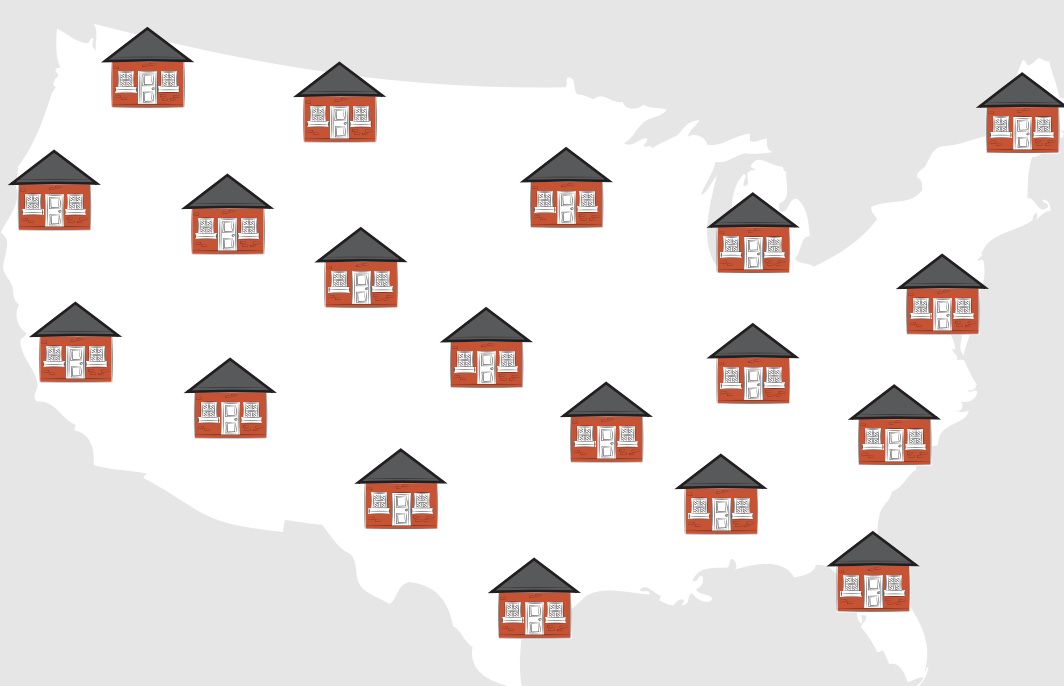

The number of American multigenerational households is growing and many of these families are living in, or moving to, Texas. Find out more about the trend below!

Generations United in the U.S.

60.6 million

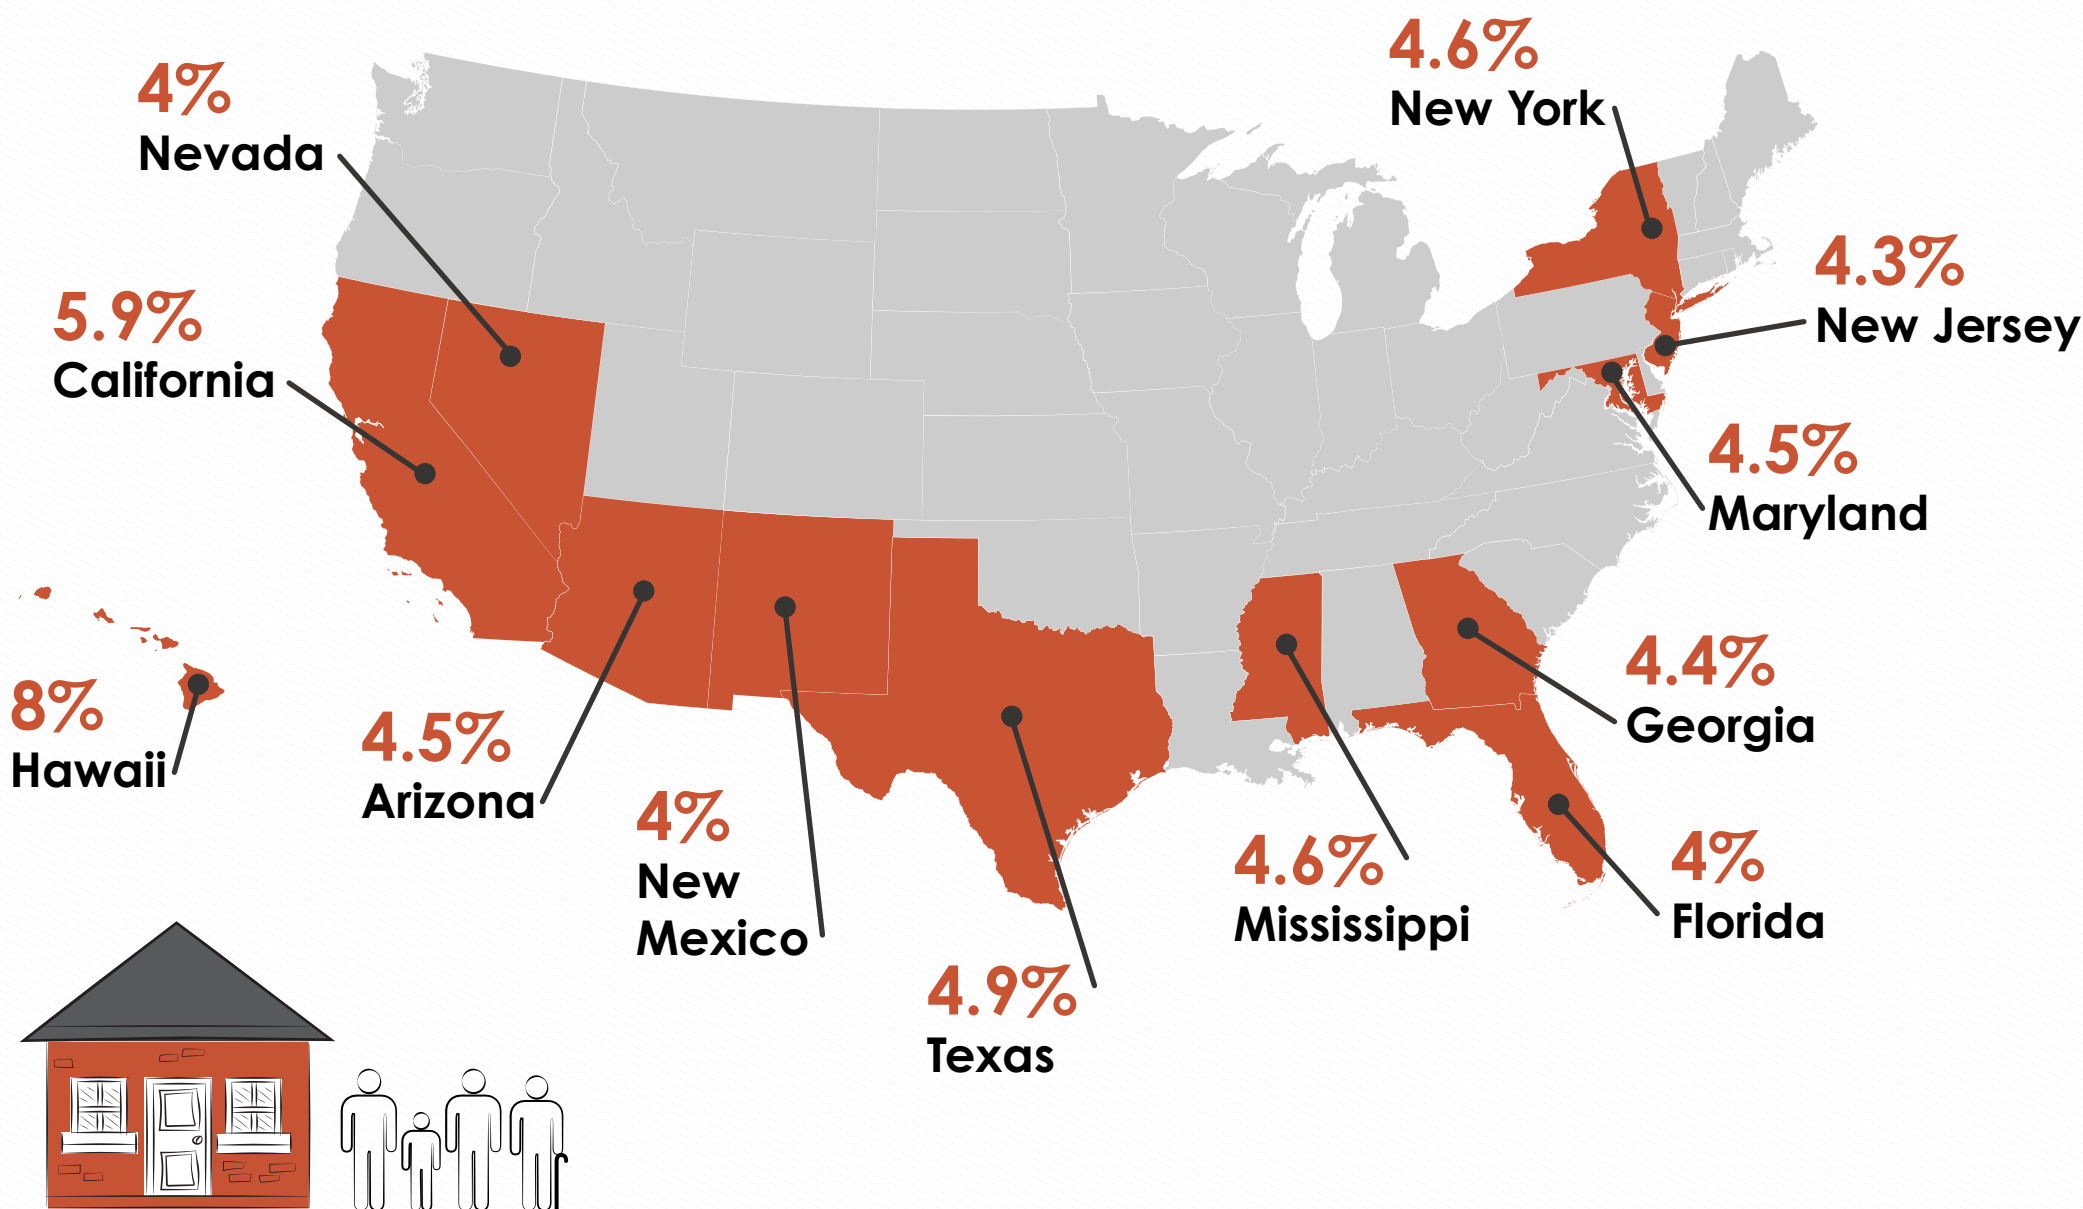

number of Americans living in multigenerational households

19%

of the U.S. population lives in multigenerational households

States with Highest Percentage of Multigenerational Households

Multigenerational Living is Big in Texas

In 2017

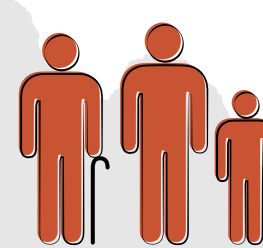

15% of Texans

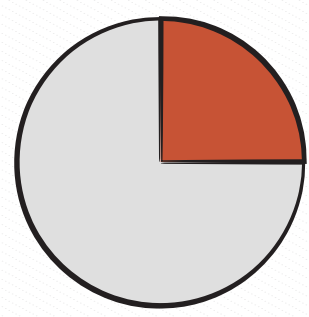

purchased a home for a multigenerational family due to aging parents or children over 18 living at home

514,982

Texas homes with 3 or more generations

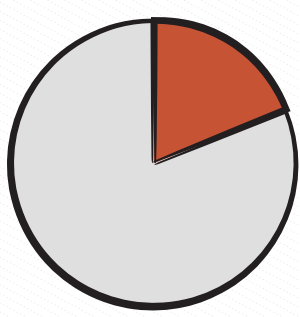

Reasons Texans are Buying Multigenerational Homes

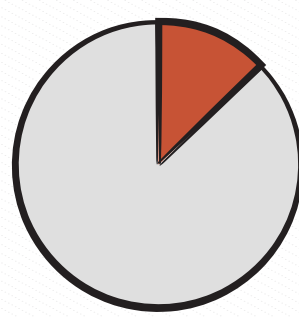

25%

Health/caretaking of aging parents

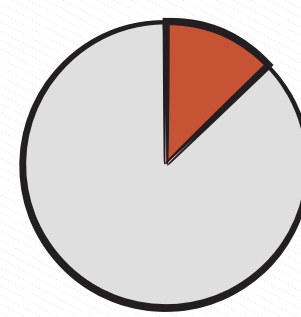

19%

Cost of living benefits

13%

Children and/or relatives over 18 years of age moving back home

13%

Able to afford a larger home due to multiple incomes

For information on how a self-storage unit can assist with moving a multigenerational household in Texas, contact Bargain Storage today!

Bargain Storage

bargainstorage.com